

In the matter of the application of George W. Armstrong executor of the last will and testament of William Reddick deceased, for an order to assign certain rail road stock and to turn over and deliver certain personal property, specifically bequesth ed to Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick and to Mary O'Donnell,

This day comes Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick in person and also comes George W. Armstrong, Executor of the last will and testament of William Reddick deceased, in person and by W. H. Armstrong his attorney, and presents his petition praying for an order of this court directing him to transfer and assign to Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick the rail road stock herein after described.

and also praying for an order of this court authorizing him to turn over and deliver the possession of certain personal <sup>property</sup> specifically bequesth ed to said Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick and to Mary O'Donnell, hereinafter described.

And it appearing to the court here that the estate of the said William Reddick deceased is perfectly solvent and sufficient to pay all of the debts of said estate, and that said estate is sufficient to pay all of the devises, gifts, bequests legacies and annuities mentioned in said will and testament

And that said William Reddick

And that said William Reddick bequeathed and gave in his last will and testament, to Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick, the following personal property viz;

One hundred shares in the stock of the Chicago Rock Island and Pacific Rail Road company.

All of the house hold furniture, books, works of art, plate, silver ware the piano, organ, all of his mirrors, looking glasses, all dishes and crockery ware, the house keeping provisions and other consumable stores, which should be found in and about his dwelling at his decease, except a good set of bed and bedding which he gave to Mary O'Donnell.

And it further appearing to the Court that said William Reddick in said will and testament also bequeathed, and gave to said Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick all of his horses, all of his cattle and all of his hogs, his best double carriage, two buggies to be selected by her, and harness for each of said buggies and harness for said carriage.

And it further appearing to the Court that all of the horses, cattle, and hogs and the carriage two buggies and harness for each of said Buggies and harness for said carriage as herein after enumerated were the property of the said William Reddick at the time of his decease, and that all of the other articles herein after enumerated were found in and about the dwelling of the said William Reddick at the time of his decease and were also the property of the said William Reddick at the time of his said decease.

And it also appearing to the court that said rail road stock aforesaid was by said William Reddick bequeathed to said Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick in and by said last will and testament of said William Reddick

And it further appearing to the court that all of the matters and things set forth in said petition are true and that Elizabeth Burrier Frank Reddick is under the provisions of the said will entitled to all of the following
