For this year’s spring concert, The Prairie Singers will perform songs they have chosen themselves from their past 27 years of music making. The performance will feature sacred music, early American tunes, international hits, Broadway numbers and a patriotic salute. Songs will include “Puff, the Magic Dragon,” “Alleluia,” and “Dream a Little Dream.” They will also perform “Golden Dreams,” “All The Things You Are,” and “You Can’t Stop the Beat”.

A chamber ensemble group, The Prairie Singers include performers from Grundy, LaSalle, Livingston, and Kendall counties. In addition to their Spring concert, the group has performed an annual Christmas concert for more than 26 years.

After the concert in the lovely West Parlors of the Mansion, coffee, punch, and dessert will be served on the lower level. Tickets are $12.00 for the concert and refreshments. Because of the popularity of this event, reservations are required. Payment options include cash, check, and credit card. Seating is limited to 40 people per evening.
