Mrs. Wm. Reddick

Mrs. Wm. Reddick died at her home in this city on last Thursday evening at nine o'clock, after a long illness. For several years past she had been troubled with a dropsical affection of the heart, and during the last year of her life had been confined to her home. Her sufferings were very great and unceasing.

Mrs. Reddick was born in Pennsylvania in 1811, her maiden name being Eliza Collins. She was married to Mr. Reddick about 50 years ago. She cam to La Salle county about 1837. Her surviving relatives are her sister, Mrs. N. Auld, of Vinton, Iowa, (who has been here since Tuesday) and her niece Nellie Auld and nephews O. P. Auld, all of Vinton, and J. J. Auld, of Rutland, Ia., all of whom are in the city.

Mrs. Reddick, though not a "noted member of society," was a woman of the warmest charitable instincts, and had been since girlhood, but though her charities were unceasing and effective, few knew of them save the recipients, and there is many a family in Ottawa who will find a faithful friend and loved benefactor gone.

She was in many respects a rare woman. In all Mr. Reddick's business and political enterprises she took, naturally, a deep interest; but more than that she assisted as few woman can with hand and head and to her aid and counsel is due much of her husband's great success both in business and political life. She made no great "stir;" the newspapers had little to say of her coming and going, but through all her life she lived an earnest Christian woman, whose influence was always for good - one of those women of whom it may be said that the world is better because she lived in it; and whose death will be mourned as that of a benefactor gone forever.

The funeral will take place to-morrow at 3 o'clock P.M., from her late residence, Rev. G. S. Young officiating.

classes of our people. The casket was literally buried in flowers, [sic]gifts of sorrowing friends, some of them of exquisite design and beauty. The house and grounds were filled with friends, more than a thousand people being present. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Young, just as she herself had directed before her death. Rev. M. K. Whittlesey also took part in the services. The pall bearers were Hon. G. W. Armstrong, Sheriff Milligan, J. G. Nattinger, E. Y. Griggs, J. F. Nash, H. W. S. Rigden, W. W. Harden and J. A. Shuler. An unusually long procession of carriages followed the body to the cemetery, where some 500 people had gathered to witness the last sad rites.

Hon. Wm. Reddick Dead

Hon. Wm. Reddick, of Ottawa, died very suddenly at his home Sunday morning last, while sitting in an easy chair in his sitting room, where he was found dead by a servant who went there to attend the fire. His acquaintance among the public men of the state was universal, and as a leader of the democratic party he was a recognised power in the state. As soon as his death was announced, flags were displayed at half-mast on the court house, banks, Clifton house and other buildings.

The deceased was born in Ballynahinch, county Down, Ireland, Oct. 31, 1812, and came to America in 1816. After living in New Jersey a short time he, with his parents went to Zanesville, O., where in 1821 his father, James Reddick, died. In 1825 William went to Wheeling, and in Wellsburg, W. Va., in the same year, learned to blow hollowware. In 1827 he emigrated to Brownsville, Pa., learned the window glass trade, and in 1830 married Miss Eliza Jane Collins, of that city, who died July 5, 1883. In 1832 Mr. and Mrs. Reddick went to Washington, D.C., where he blew glass two years and saved $1,000 the first money of any amount he ever, had. In 1834 he went back to Brownsville, and in the spring of 1835 landed in Ottawa, or in the vicinity of that city. In 1838 he was elected sheriff of LaSalle county and he held the office until 1846. He was state land appraiser and county collector at that time. He was state senator from 1847 to 1851 and in 1870 was again re-elected senator for two years. At the time of his death he was one of the trustees of the Kankakee insane asylum. He was a member of the board of supervisors for years, and in 1870, when a senator, introduced and had passed what is known as the Reddick temperance law. By his will he bequeathes his fine residence, valued at $60,000, to the city of Ottawa for a public library building. He also bequeathes to the city about $125,000 in money stocks and bonds as a fund for the support of the library, and gives to the county one hundred acres of land adjoining the county farm valued at [sic]$11,00. There were also other bequests. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon.

JOHN FUNK. [partial transcription follows, with personal observation]

"Francis J. Funk married Esther Morton, a native of Massachusetts, and two children were born of their union. Eliza, their daughter, was reared in the family of a Mr. Reddick, by whose surname she was called."

PERSONAL OBSERVATION: Francis J. Funk was apparently married three times: (1) Elizabeth Burger; (2) Esther Morton; and (3) Mary Strockbien. Various items and official documents seem to indicate that Francis J. Funk only had children resulted from his marriage to the first wife. Among those children were Margaret (Funk) Mohr [sicMoore], Elizabeth Burrier Funk, and John Funk, husband of Mary A. Rich. For a transcription of the Last Will and testament of Francis J. Funk, see either his notes or media sources.

Miss Elizabeth B. F. Reddick, the adopted daughter of the late Wm. and Eliza Reddick, died at the family mansion, in this city, on Tuesday, 22, aged 46 years, 4 months and 12 days, of catarrhal consumption, together with a chronic affection of the throat, which had troubled her for over twenty years. She was born in Cobleniz, Prussia, and was brought to this country by her parents when she was two years old. They lived near the Fox River House, where her mother died when she was less than three years old. Mrs. Reddick, who was of a charitable disposition, heard of the little girl's bereaved condition and took her home. The childless couple soon learned to love the little one and adopted her as their own. They gave her all the loving care that parents could have bestowed upon their own offspring, and in return her love went out to them in the fullest of childish trust and reverence, which, as she grew up ripened into the respect and devotion of a daughter to her parents. The death of Mrs. Reddick affected her deeply, and the crowning weight of her misery was the loss of Mr. Reddick, since which time she has been [sic] appressed with a load of unspeakable sorrow. This was greatly increased by the worryment of a law suit which threatened not only to have turned her out of the home of her whole life, but in effect to declare her nothing to her adopted parents. She thought the suit if decided against the will by which her adopted father gave her a home for life, would in effect pronounce her a trespasser, a sponger of bounties she had no right to enjoy. That these reflections hastened, if they did not cause her death, is certain.

Her remains were interred in the Reddick cemetery lot in West Ottawa, Thursday, after appropriate funeral services at the house.

Her father died a year ago. She is sup[posed] to have made no will. Her property will in that case go to her brother, John Funk, a farmer living near Streator. He is a man of moderate circumstances and has a large family of young children, and in every way is worthy of the help her effects will be to him and the children.

THE MOHR-FUNK MATTER

Amicably Settled and all Litigation Dismissed ...

The troubles existing between the Mohr family in Germany, the heirs to the estate of the late Elizabeth Burrier Funk Reddick, and John Funk of this city, have all been amicably settled, and to-day a decree was entered in the Circuit Court by which John Funk became sole heir to the property left by the late Elizabeth Funk Reddick. ... With this settlement all litigations commenced by the Mohr heirs against John Funk were cancelled and upon entering the decree the causes were dismissed.

DIED

In the town of Wallace, May 6th, 1882, JOHN COLLINS, in the 69th year of his age.

Of a family of eight only two remain - Mrs. Reddick and Mrs. Auld. For months and even years at times Mr. Collins' sufferings have been intense. The last two months of his life were ones of great trial and suffering, resulting in total blindness. In these hours it brought the eternal home very near, and the dear friends he so longed to see, to be with them and rest with God in his Paradise above. These were some of his last expressions. He was ready and waiting for the final call; he longed to go, and be the dear ones all at home. He will never feel the blindness that settled around his last days, for the Son of Righteousness will remove all the darkness. There no night of pain will visit his pillow. Rest peacefully besides still waters. May an unbroken family meet him when they, too, are called hence. He has forded the stream where timid feet falter. We say farewell, we hope to meet again.

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb,
Take this new treasure to thy trust;
And give the sacred relic room
T slumber in the silent dust.

Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious care.
Invade thy bounds! no mortal woes
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,

Descendants of John Collins

Daughters Will Get Estate of Mrs. Ann Rhoads

Estate of Well Known Ottawa Woman Who Passed Away Recently Is Filed For Probate Today

The estate of the late Mrs. Ann Rhoads, who died at her home in this city on December 9th.... The petition filed ... lists her holdings at $20,000, consisting of real estate in South Ottawa and cash and stock in the bank.

The document dividing her holdings was drawn on June 30th, 1908....

The will provides that in the event that neither of her two daughters, Katherine and Edith Rhoads, marry, they will inherit the bulk of her property.

The testator in her will said that the reason she left the holdings to her daughters, was that she wanted to provide a comfortable home for them, while they remained single.

Samuel Rhodes and Anna Eleza Sedgwick were married about 1864^[128]. They had the following children:

PERSONAL OBSERVATION: of the names mentioned in this record, Barbara was the mother of David; Rachel was David's sister; Isaac was a younger brother to David; and Isabella nee Trumbo was the wife of Jesse, an older brother to David. Some questions brought to mind by this record: (1) where was Jesse at this time? Other sources (see below) indicate that Jesse Green was in California at this time searching for gold. Jesse apparently left Illinois not knowing about the birth of Clara. (2) how did the recent immigrants learn of the job possibilities in the woolen mill which had only been in existence for ten years? Were advertisements placed in foreign papers?

PERSONAL OBSERVATION: at this time [06/20/2001] it is unclear who H. R. Green was, as the wife of Jesse was Isabella nee Trumbo Green. A check of the later census records might prove if Jesse was still married to Isabella in the period AFTER 1870. The names and ages of the two children of Isabella that are mentioned in the 1850 census coincide with those found in the 1860 record.

State of Illinois marriage records reveal the following: (1) GREEN, JESSE married TRUMBO, ISABELLE in the county of LA SALLE on 06/22/1843 [see Bk. A / LIC # 618] and (2) GREEN, JESSE married RHOADES, HANNAH in the county of LA SALLE on 03/20/1856 [see Bk. B / LIC # 2415]. If both grooms are the SAME Jesse Green, the question begs, what happened to Isabella Trumbo, wife of Jesse before 1860? Further information regarding Isabella Trumbo Green is needed.

A check [06/25/2001] of the genealogical record [entitled THE TRUMBO FAMILY] by Conrad W. Feltner, located in the library of the La Salle County Genealogy Guild in Ottawa, Illinois, supports this interpretation: Jesse Green was married twice, his first wife, Isabella Trumbo, having died in 1854.
